'Stones lose at home

WHILE Wycombe Wanderers were going down 0-2 at Rhodes Avenue, Bishop's Stortford on Tuesday night, Woking's hopes of finishing in the top three took a knock when they went down by the same scoreline to Dulwich Hamlet.

Rothmans are giving £1,000 to the winners, £500 to the runners up and £250 to the third placed club. Woking now have five matches remaining as do Hendon and Bishop's Stortford.

Another result of particular significance to Wycombe Wanderers was Leytonstone's home defeat by Enfield 3-2. The Blues have to meet Leytonstone twice before the end of the season (on Wednesday and next Saturday). The three points pushes Enfield up three places in the table but is still their lowest position for many years.

BIGGEST

Tooting and Mitcham also moved up the league with one of the biggest wins of the term, 4-0 over Hitchin Town, while Walton and Hersham, who meet Wycombe on Monday at Loakes Park were held to a 0-0 draw by Leatherhead.

Tuesday nights full results: Bishop's Stortford 2, Wycombe Wanderers 0; Dulwich Hamlet 2, Woking 0; Leytonstone 2, Enfield 3; Tooting and Mitcham 4, Hitchin Town 0; Walton and Hersham 0, Leatherhead 0.
